

CAPITAL MOTORISTS MAKE GOOD RECORD

Many Perfect Scores at End of First Day of Endurance Run.

By HARRY WARD.

STAUNTON, Va., May 28.—After a 164-mile trip that consisted of a series of receptions, the first day's run in the touring test from Washington to Richmond and return, was completed here last evening.

The contestants traversed every known variety of roads, but after leaving Winchester the course was good enough to race over. "Mid the green fields of Virginia; in the vale of Shenandoah," the going was most excellent. At various points along the way delegations of motorists met the tourists and escorted them from time to time. Whenever a speed trap was just ahead, warning was given by some friendly disposed motorist. Nearly all the towns and villages located on the famous valley pike have large signs at the edges of the town giving notice that the speed limit through the town was six miles an hour.

However, when the cars came through at this rate of speed, the residents turned out en masse and urged the drivers to "hit it up."

Warning that Mr. Crawford had a notorious speed trap made everybody exceedingly careful and the entire caravan crept through the village. Not a single friendly greeting was extended to the motorists as they passed through this village, and the resentment against the motorists was so pronounced as to be remarked by everyone in the town.

Munsey Tourists Entries.
A number of drivers who participated in the Frank A. Munsey tour last fall are driving cars in the present event. Among them is Frank A. Hardart, winner of the Munsey sweepstakes trophy. Accompanied by several members of his family Mr. Hardart is making the tour in order to see the beauties of the valley of Virginia. The fact that ignition troubles caused his car to break down a few miles before reaching here, necessitating its being towed into Staunton, was a source of sincere regret on the part of every participant in the tour, as Mr. Hardart has endeavored himself to every person in the tour. His car was necessarily disqualified, but he will continue as a non-contestant.

Harry Ward, who drove the chief checker's car in the Munsey run, is piloting No. 16, Maxwell, in this run, and is giving a good account of himself. The other Maxwell entry, known as "the baby," is also in the perfect score class to date. It is the driver, A. Gary Carter, who is driving No. 7, Washington, who is driving No. 8, Washington, and both have perfect scores.

The two Ford entries are piloted by "Munsey" No. 1, and "Munsey" No. 2, by E. J. Drake.

CHARLOTTE, N.C., May 28.—After a very rough ride over the mountains, the motor tourists checked in here this morning on time. For many miles it was impossible to make over six miles an hour owing to extreme roughness of roads. Today's run is putting a severe strain on the cars, but all are holding up well.

TRAMP WHO WON FORTUNE IS DEAD
Hussey Made $2,500,000 in Nova Scotia Mine Deal on Borrowed Money.

WANTERS, N. S., May 28.—William Penn Hussey, who rose from a tramp, content if he got one square meal a day and a bed in a haystack at night, to be a millionaire with a mansion and a fine estate, is dead at his home here. He had been in ill health for a long time. His wife and son survive.

Hussey ran away from his home in North Berwick, Me., where he was born in 1847, because he was spanked for pranks that he and other boys played.

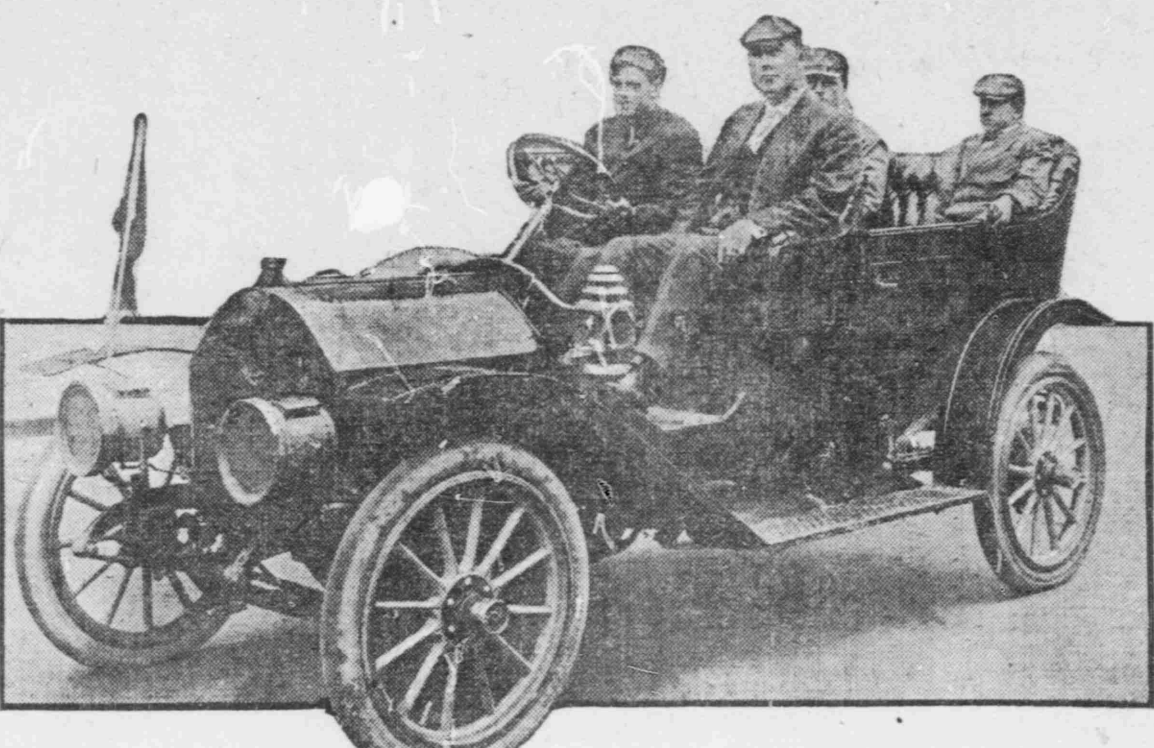

In 1886 some one told him of a splendid chance for investment in coal mine in Nova Scotia. He went there and bought the property for $5,000, borrowing the money. He formed a stock company, went to England and interested financiers in London and Liverpool in the deal whereby he sold the mine outright and reaped a profit of $2,500,000.

TOO MUCH SPLASHING.
Mayor Stoy, of Atlantic City, is telling a story about a man from Okoboji, Iowa, who was making his first visit to the seashore. A fat lady gambled in the waves near him. She shrieked, hopped up and down, and flapped about with arms and legs.

All of a sudden a stronger wave than usual swept up the beach, and—splash—the man was dashed with spray. "Hi!" he shouted, scowling blackly at the happy bather. Ho, fat! Stop that bobbing about before you drown a feller, will ye?"—Louisville Herald.

JUSTIFIABLE.
"Why was the circus man slain?" "He asked the wrong question first." "What do you mean?" "Well, he asked, 'What State were you born in?' and the fellow said, 'New Jersey.' Then he asked, 'Have you taken out naturalization papers?'"—Cleveland Leader.

ON THE WASHINGTON-RICHMOND AUTO RUN

One of the contesting cars in the reliability run from Washington to Richmond is a Regal "30" touring car. Frank Homer is piloting the car, and is holding up the Regal reputation for reliability. This machine was entered in the recent endurance run of the Harrisburg Automobile Club and made a creditable showing. It also participated in the run of the Norris town Automobile Club, held last week. A car of the same model, driven by R. Bruce Emerson, won fourth prize in the second annual sociability run of The Times.

ANACOSTIA PLANS FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Special Exercises to Be Had for Dead at Hospital for the Insane.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ANACOSTIA, D. C., MAY 28.
The mounds that mark the final resting places of more than 2,000 soldiers whose services to the country represented the years covered by the three last wars, veterans whose declining days were passed as inmates of the Government Hospital for the Insane, will bear a miniature flag and will be strewn with flowers on the morning of Memorial Day, while exercises commemorative of their heroism will follow under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The floral decoration will be performed by committees appointed by the institution and from John A. Logan Relief Corps, No. 2. The women named to represent the hospital in this patriotic duty are Mrs. Honora O'Brien, Mrs. S. Meloy, Mrs. Helen G. Leitch, Miss Kate McNamara, Miss Lessee Browning, Miss Mary O'Leary, Miss Julia E. Hardy, and Miss Mary C. Quaid.

There will be no dearth of flowers with which to cover the grassy mounds, for the hot houses of the hospital will yield their choicest blossoms to form a floral bed for the American flag that will flutter from each grave. Contributions in the form of garlands will also be made through the organization of the public schools in Anacostia and Congress Heights, who will attend the ceremonies and take part in the singing.

The exercises will be under the direction of John A. Logan Post, No. 13, Grand Army of the Republic, of Anacostia, of which organization A. B. Frisbie is the commander. The members of the post will assemble on the morning of Memorial Day at 9 o'clock at the Masonic Hall in Anacostia, at which place the band from the Government Hospital will be introduced.

After a patriotic program of music has been given, the veterans, the speakers, the band, and a detachment of Spanish-American veterans will parade by way of Nichols avenue to the street car line leading to the institution where the visitors will be met by a company of old soldiers, inmates of the asylum, through whose ranks a drill will pass to the amphitheater at Poplar Spring.

Here the speakers' stand has been erected, covered with flags and bunting. In the audience will sit several hundred patients cared for at the institution. The St. Elizabeth Band and the choir of the hospital will sing several numbers, in addition to the songs that the asylum choir will render.

The exercises at this spot are attended each year by probably 1,000 people, to whom the ceremonies have a significance not usually realized on other occasions, owing to the circumstances under which the last days of the former men-at-arms were ended.

There are two hospices here, the Government Hospital for the Insane, a spot that has many memories of the civil war clustering about it, for here men were removed from the Southern battlefields, cared for temporarily or permanently, and military leaders of that day spent some of their time here.

The Anacostia veterans, who will be in charge of the services, will attend religious exercises in a body with Logan Relief Corps, No. 7, on tomorrow night at the Anacostia Baptist Church, where the Rev. Frank L. Bards, pastor, will deliver an appropriate address.

DEATH IS CAUSED BY KITTEN AND FLY
Latter Is Mashed in Scratch of Former and Poisoning.

NEW YORK, May 28.—According to the coroner's announcement a cat and a fly were responsible for the death of Edward H. Pratt, a manufacturer of Jersey City. While petting a kitten a week ago he was scratched on the hand and a few hours later crushed a fly in that wound. Septic poisoning which even amputation of the hand could not check, caused death.

"And is your milk pasteurized?" asks the prospective customer of the dairyman. "Sure," he replies. "My boys pasteurize the cows every morning."—Chicago News.

"ON TO RICHMOND" IS AUTOISTS' CRY

Capital Motorists Leave Staunton on Their Journey South.

STAUNTON, Va., May 28.—"On to Richmond" was the cry this morning as the cars in touring test run were sent away by Starter William Jose.

The weather continues fair. No. 3, Regal, checked in at 7 o'clock this morning, after being on the road all night. A short distance the other side of Leesburg a rut was sheared off, and it took several hours' work to drill out the rut.

Other unusually costly gifts also have been received by Miss Wickham, among them a cluster of diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom.

The marriage of Miss Wickham and Mr. Pulitzer will take place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Edmund F. Wickham, June 1, and will be attended by many members of the fashionable set of both St. Louis and New York, and though not so large as some recent St. Louis weddings, will be one of the most brilliant of the year. Among the New York guests will be the bridegroom's father, Joseph Pulitzer, his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pulitzer, and Mr. and Mrs. Seward Webb, parents of Mrs. Ralph Pulitzer.

The wedding will be an afternoon affair and the Rev. Dr. W. J. McKim, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church will officiate. Miss Wickham's bridesmaids will be Miss Caroline Lackland, Miss Louise Nugent, Miss Mildred Stickney, of St. Louis, and Miss Edith Pulitzer, of New York, a sister of the bridegroom. Mr. Pulitzer will have his brother, Ralph Pulitzer, as best man, and his groomsmen will be W. Seward Webb, Jr., F. N. Edgell, Frederick Cruger, and James Park, of New York; Ephron Catlin, Jr., of New York; and Richard S. Kennard, of St. Louis.

The young couple will spend their honeymoon on one of the Pulitzer country estates in the East, the choice being determined by the weather at the time. These estates are at N. C. Harbor, Me., and near Asheville, N. C.

WOMAN'S GENTLE NATURE CALLS FOR GENTLE TREATMENT.
Delicately formed and gently reared, women will find, in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives or mothers, that the one simple, wholesome remedy which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally, and which may be used with truly beneficial effects, under any conditions, when the system needs a laxative, is—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. It is well known to be a simple combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic liquids, which are agreeable and refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system when its gentle cleansing is desired.

Only those who buy the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna can hope to get its beneficial effects, and as a guarantee of the excellence of the remedy, the full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is printed on the front of every package, and without it any preparation offered as Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is fraudulent and should be declined. To those who know the quality of this excellent laxative, the offer of any substitute, when Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is called for, is always resented by a transfer of patronage to some first-class drug establishment, where they do not recommend, nor sell false brands, nor imitation remedies. The genuine article may be bought of all reliable druggists everywhere; one size only. Regular price 50 cents per bottle. Get a bottle today to have in the house when needed.

GOLD DINNER SET FOR PULITZER BRIDE

Fiancee of Joseph Pulitzer, Jr., Gets Costly Wedding Gift.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 28.—Friends of Miss Elinor Wickham, of Vandeventer place, are authority for the statement that the father of her fiancé, Joseph Pulitzer, Jr., has presented to her a solid gold dinner service for a wedding gift.

The service is described as being extraordinarily magnificent, and is said to be valued at $50,000.

Other unusually costly gifts also have been received by Miss Wickham, among them a cluster of diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom.

BANDMASTER HALEY SERIOUSLY STRICKEN

Musician, Critically Ill, Still Directs Band's Engagements.

Fighting bravely against an illness that has kept him in bed since Easter and declaring emphatically that he will get well, Prof. William A. Haley, director of Haley's band is hovering between life and death at his home, 1507 T street northwest.

He is suffering from heart failure, and his physicians say he must lie quiet for several months if he wishes to recover his health.

In the meantime, the band master takes the keenest interest in his band, and directs from his bed the work of planning for the summer engagements.

Hard work caused Mr. Haley's illness. It came on him two years ago after a hard summer season at Atlantic City. Instead of giving up at that time he continued working during the ensuing winter. Last summer he was unusually busy and when the autumn came he collapsed.
